MR. BRYAN IN NEW YORK.

After a strenuous day of speechmaking in cities and towns around New York, William J. Bryan was principal speaker at a monster rally given by Tammany Hall, in Madison Square Garden, last night.

The day was an exhausting one for Mr. Bryan, for it rained most of the day, and he was compelled to eat his dinner in his wet clothing in 15 minutes, instead of participating in the banquet at the democratic club in Fifth avenue.

Yesterday morning at a reception of the woman's democratic club at the Valdorf Astoria, Mr. Bryan made a speech referring to the fact of women taking such an active interest in politics. He did not wait for the lunch the women had supplied, but was hurried away to Westchester county in an automobile, to speak there.

Mr. Bryan returned to New York in the evening, arriving at the Democratic Club at Fifth avenue and Fifty-sixth street, at 8 o'clock last night, two hours behind schedule and in clothes very wet from the rain in Westchester. The dinner had gone on without the guest of honor, and Mr. Bryan, Gov. Jennings, Mr. Mack and the others of Mr. Bryan's party ate their dinner in fifteen minutes, while the parade was being organized outside.

Before the parade started Mr. Bryan was prevailed upon by his managers to give up taking part in the parade, and instead to go direct to the Hoffman House and change his wet clothes for dry. The parade, therefore, with its 50 automobiles, started without him. Red fires were burning up and down Fifth avenue from the clubhouse.

Hamilton Fish Park was a solid block of people, chiefly from the tenements in the immediate neighborhood. Mr. Bryan was there when the parade arrived and already was speaking. The police estimated that there were 25,000 people in the park. Mr. Bryan in his speech eulogized the Jewish race, and told what it had done and what it yet could do for the betterment of the country.

But, it was in the Madison Square Garden meeting that the chief interest lay.

The immense auditorium was quickly filled, and when 8 o'clock, the hour of the opening of the meeting, came, every seat was taken and the aisle ways became choked with hundreds of enthusiastic partisans. It was Tammany's welcome to the presidential candidate, and from out the purlieus of the city came throngs eager to aid in the greeting.

In his speech Mr. Bryan said: "I am glad to begin the closing week of this campaign in this great commercial city. I am glad to be encouraged by the reports that come from your city and state. I rejoice in the evidences of a victory so large that the east and west, north and south will claim a part in that victory. I desire to present a few thoughts appropriate to the closing week of the campaign, but I speak of issues and I beg the privilege of saying a word about candidates. I want to urge your support for the candidates for Congress that are here represented tonight. I expect to be in Washington after the 4 h day of March (prolonged cheers), and I want to find there a democratic Congress. The president can act as an executive in an executive capacity without the aid of Congress, but he cannot participate in legislation except as he co-operates with Congress. I aspire to the presidency. It is not because I shall find great pleasure in distributing patronage. There is one thing that makes that office attractive to me, and that is that the president participates in legislation, and I believe that legislation—remedial legislation—is needed. I believe the country is ripe for that legislation, and that if we have there a democratic Congress and a democratic president, and that both Congress and the president being pledged to the Denver platform, it will be possible to send to the senate measure after measure carrying out the reforms outlined in that platform, and that with a majority of the American people behind us we can demand that the senate submit to the will of the people."

More Than Enough is Too Much.

To maintain health, a mature man or woman needs just enough food to repair the waste and supple energy and body heat. The habitual consumption of more food than is necessary for these purposes is the prime cause of stomach troubles, rheumatism and disorders of the kidneys. If troubled with indigestion, revise your diet, let reason and not appetite control and take a few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and you will soon be all right again. For sale by W. F. Creighton & Co., and Richard Gibson.

Why

Is it that there is an occasional howl about the poor quality of goods sold by firms? The reason is that such business houses have no future and want to "get theirs," no matter what the purchasers receive.

Our Motto

Is to recommend to you something we can guarantee and sell to you, whether you live in the city or country, exactly what we SHOW YOU.

Some One

Has said that we were not particular about the trade of Alexandria city, and we want the people here to know that such statement is absolutely false.

A Business Man

Would be an idiot to come to a city, invest money in heavy expenses, including taxes and other things, and then even intimate such a statement as this.

We Desire Your Trade

In Liquors and to that end we intend to publish every week our lines of goods and invite you to call and look them over.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

TUESDAY EVENING, OCT. 27, 1908.

ONE has more than once read about the man "who came to scoff, but remained to pray." This in a measure recalls the recent meeting of the Bryan and Kern Business Men's Club in New York at which former members of Mr. Cleveland's Cabinet—Herbert, Francis and Harmon spoke and former Secretary of State Olney sent a letter, by reason of his enforced absence. Every member of Mr. Cleveland's Cabinet is now actively engaged in Mr. Bryan's behalf. These men who so strenuously opposed him formerly, are now numbered among his friends and admirers, and Secretary Olney says, that "no one but an able and sincere man could have stood an analysis of his character and ability as has Mr. Bryan unless he were truly great." Time at last makes all things even, and in the words of the Charleston Courier:

The people know Mr. Bryan, and know him to be, above all, truthful and unselfish. They understand that the profound need of this republic today is, most of all, a president of sterling personal integrity and unshakable courage, that personality in these times is a higher consideration than political prescience and consistency. They see in Mr. Bryan strong, rugged, cardinal virtues that overshadow the mistakes that he may have made, and that is why they are about to elect him president in spite of a multitude of petty inconsistencies, long buried in a past overcome by larger service, that would have destroyed an ordinary politician or statesman.

Mr. Bryan does not throw flowers at himself, as does Mr. Taft, but last week he expressed his appreciation and confidence of his party's interests in the election, when he told the people in New Jersey that he had a united democracy behind him and a frightened republican party before him. Yet we are told that in this city some white men boast that they intend to vote for the candidate of the party that has pledged itself to reduce the congressional representation in the south and in the electoral college!

THE New York World published on Friday a verbatim report of the grand jury proceedings in the case of Richard A. McCurdy, former head of the Mutual Life, showing that District Attorney Jerome, appearing as a witness after an indictment had been found against McCurdy, had made a plea that the bill be not signed and reported to the court. Mr. Jerome seems to have fallen from the high perch upon which, in the opinion of some deluded people, he once rested.

JUDGE TAFT opposes the bank deposit guarantee plank in the democratic platform. Yesterday he spoke in Connecticut and of course touched on that issue, but on that very day the Columbia Trust Company at Middletown closed its doors on orders from national bank examiners. This is an unpleasant coincidence, at least.

BEFORE the national woman suffrage convention at Buffalo adjourned last week Kate M. Gordon, corresponding secretary, announced that President Roosevelt had refused to incorporate in his message to Congress a recommendation for equal suffrage. Well, this is one of the things the president has left undone for which he can be praised.

WHILE the republicans are using utterances and alleged utterances of Cleveland against Bryan, it might prove interesting to the Cleveland democrats, whom they are trying to influence, to recall how much more bitterly these same republicans attacked Cleveland.

THERE is in this campaign not a valid argument why a democrat should not vote for Bryan and Kern. On the other hand, there is not a substantial reason why an independent republican desirous of a reform of gross abuses should vote for Taft and Sherman.

THE Cabinet having been ordered out by the president to "whoop it up for Taft" one of the New York papers very pertinently asks if the Supreme Court is to be allowed to stand around doing nothing from now till election day.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, Oct. 27.

Director Smith, of the Geological Survey, has issued an order that no person connected with the survey shall own any interest in any mines of the United States or Alaska. If such person is an owner of stock, he is to promise to dispose of it as soon as practicable and notify his chief that he has done so.

"Fifty years young" was the key note of the cheery responses which President Roosevelt made today to the many personal greetings which he received from the representatives of foreign rulers and governments, members of his Cabinet, now in the city, and other high administration officials, on his having reached the half-century milestone of life's journey. Flowers in profusion, cards, telegraphic messages from personal and political friends and public officials throughout the country, and presents from close friends, marked an occasion which otherwise did not vary from the daily routine which the president has followed since he returned from Oyster Bay. When he reached the executive offices today, a little later than usual, he found piled high on his desk a floral tribute of chrysanthemums, orchids and American beauty roses, sent by Captain Poole and the employes of the department of public buildings and grounds.

Douglas Robinson, brother-in-law of President Roosevelt started an Ananias Club of his own, to-day. In denying charges which have been recently made here connecting him with an allege combination, which it was said pulled down most of the $40,000,000 paid for the Panama canal franchise, he said: The statement which recently appeared in the N. Y. World connecting my name with the so-called Panama canal syndicate is absolutely unfounded inasmuch as I never had any connection with any such syndicate. I do not even known whether such a syndicate exists. It was an outrage to connect my name with what was obviously a mere fabrication for campaign purposes.

One week from today the people of this country will elect a president. A month ago the republicans were admittedly scared. Today they profess to be confident. The Bryan managers have apparently been confident from the start and today claim that victory will be theirs. If the result were to depend upon the votes of the man who attended seven theaters here, Bryan would be Roosevelt's successor. For the first time the occupant of the White House has seen fit to send his entire Cabinet out on the firing line in behalf of the man whom he has picked for his successor. For the first time, on account of the discharge of a battalion of colored soldiers, the negro vote can not be counted upon as the exclusive property of the republican party. For the first time in many years, the dominant party foresees the possibility of losing a large share of the labor vote. For the first time the socialist party threatens to become an important factor in the result. And so, the list of distinctive features might be continued. But to predicate the result of the election upon any of these factors would be futile. The democrats made a popular hit in publishing their campaign contributions before the election, that will have its effect when the ballots are cast. Whether the republican promise of publicity after the election will be satisfying to the voters remains to be seen. The fact that religion has become a factor in the campaign is made manifest by the recent statement issued by the American Unitarian Association, of Boston, which seeks to counteract the propaganda that has been conducted against the republican candidate because of his membership in that church, especially in certain communities of the west. Incidentally, the statement brings out the fact that there have been four avowedly Unitarian presidents of the United States. Disregarding these peculiar features of the campaign, it has been one, generally speaking, of issues on the part of the democrats and of persons on the part of the republicans. The democrats have emphasized guarantee of bank deposits, publicity of campaign contributions before election, tariff revision on a revenue basis, legislation for the benefit of labor, and the sins of omission and commission of the republican party. The republicans have emphasized Taft's qualifications for the presidency. During the next six days the fight will be centered in Ohio, Indiana and New York. In these states both parties are massing their heaviest artillery. In each of these states there seems to be a strong possibility of electing a democratic governor, and if folks were in the habit of voting straight tickets, Bryan's chances of riding in the White House on the evening of March 4 next would look pretty bright today.

The Filipinos will continue their determined fight for free trade in tobacco and sugar between the United States and the Philippine archipelago. Pablo Ocampo de Leon, resident commissioner of the Philippines in the United States, called at the White House this afternoon to take up this subject and certain other economic questions with the president. Owing to the Cabinet meeting the conference has been deferred until tomorrow.

Only two members of the president's Cabinet sat with him about the table at a Cabinet meeting today—Secretaries Cortelyon and Wright.

The announcement was made today by a high authority that the War Department and the president would be unable to favorably act upon the application for reinstatement of Mingo Saunders, sergeant of one of the negro companies of the 25th regiment involved in the Brownsville affray.

T. O. McConchie has been appointed postmaster at Remington, Fauquier county, Va.

In an informal ruling made public today, the Interstate Commerce Commission holds as discriminatory the practice of railroads in issuing commutation tickets to pupils attending a certain class of schools, and orders that all school students must be given the same privilege. The commission decides that the issuance of the commutation ticket to school children is lawful, but the only reservation in their sale must be as regards to age. "The carrier may not inquire into the mission, errand or business of the passenger as a condition of fixing the transportation rate which such a passenger shall pay," says the opinion in conclusion.

BRYAN WILL WIN.

At the democratic meeting in Richmond last night at which Congressman W. A. Jones, of the First district, made a strong speech in advocacy of Mr. Bryan, the following telegram from Chairman Norman E. Mack, of the national democratic committee, to State Chairman J. Taylor Ellyson, was read by the latter:

We are now confident that Bryan will win in the electoral college. I am wiring to urge you to call upon the voters of your state to be active and to appeal to those in strong democratic sections to bring out the full democratic vote, so that a big majority of the popular vote will be cast for Bryan and Kern. A large majority of the popular vote will help to secure the reform legislation to which our party is committed. A big majority in your state will help the democrats everywhere. Please leave no effort untried to get out the full democratic vote in your state. Appeal to the democratic papers which have done so much in this campaign to aid in this work.

Reports that W. H. Taft had suffered a collapse after his series of meetings in Brooklyn last night and would be unable to proceed with his campaign today are denied at the home of Henry W. Taft, in New York, where the candidate is staying.

News of the Day.

President Roosevelt today celebrated his 50th birthday.

Mr. James S. Sherman denies the charges that he had been involved in an attempted deal in government lands in New Mexico.

Crown Prince George of Servia has gone to St Petersburg for the purpose, it is believed, of announcing his betrothal to his cousin, Princess Marina Nicholacon.

Mrs. Ada Gorman Magness, daughter of the late Senator Gorman, has asked the Navy Department for clemency in the case of her husband under arrest for desertion.

John W. Kern yesterday began a speechmaking tour in Indiana, using as his chief argument that the republican party was trying to scare the voters into line by crying panic.

Secretary of War Luke Wright, who will speak in Richmond tomorrow night in advocacy of Taft, will be introduced by John Skelton Williams, former president of the Seaboard Air Line road.

Forsaking the stage for the pulpit, Homer Barton, an actor, has been received into Grace Baptist Church in Norfolk as a first step in the direction of his new field of labor.

It is rumored that the Court of Appeals will issue an order to close all saloons in Fredericksburg pending their decision on the appeal taken by the anti-saloon league from the Corporation Court.

Rev. W. E. Callender, rector of the Church of the Epiphany, Greenville, S. C., has accepted a call to the rectorship of the Episcopal Church at Falls Church and Vienna, Fairfax county.

Elections for the federal houses were held yesterday throughout Canada. The returns show that Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the premier, who is the last House, had a majority of sixty-six, will be returned to power for five years with a slightly reduced majority.

E. E. Hundley, public school principal at Fort Smith, Ark., disappeared last Saturday when he left his boarding place, the Alamo Hotel, to spend the day fishing and hunting at Grassy Lake, Okla. Two hunters yesterday saw a boat floating on the lake, and upon recovering it found Prof. Hundley's dead body lying in the bottom with a gunshot wound through his left breast. One theory is that while rowing on the lake he discovered some ducks, and in reaching for his gun caught the trigger and fired the gun. He was from Virginia, where he was formerly a professor in the state university. He was unmarried.

MINISTER MURDERED.

It developed yesterday that Rev. John L. Smith, who had been missing from his charge at Reeds Ferry, Va., was the victim of foul play, and following an autopsy yesterday afternoon a warrant was issued for his successor, Rev. Dr. Ernest Lyons, who is accused of the murder.

The dead preacher was an exponent of a "sanctified" or a "free love" sect, and rumor had connected his name with a woman of his congregation. Rev. Mr. Lyons was interested in the reputation of the woman involved, and following an unclerical argument between the two, Smith suddenly disappeared, Lyons having been last seen in his company.

That was in August. As weeks passed and no word of the missing man was received, members of his flock became alarmed a detective was employed. Neither diligent search in the community nor painstaking inquiry at Smith's former home in North Carolina, brought forth a clew.

Followers of the clergyman furnished financial aid to prosecute the search, and a reward was offered. Last week a body was found floating in Nansemond river by the captain of the tug Hampton. It was partially decomposed, and was buried as unidentified. Friends of the absent preacher learned of the incident, and yesterday caused the body to be disinterred, which was identified by three persons as that of Rev. Mr. Smith.

A subsequent autopsy proved that Smith did not die from drowning, but from a blow on the temple, which was fractured.

A detective arrested Lyons near his home yesterday evening. He wept profusely, protesting his innocence, but made conflicting statements. Smith's body, so detectives say, was first buried, and then was deposited in the river.

ENDEAVORERS MEET.

The fall meeting of the Northern Virginia Christian Endeavor Society was held in the Presbyterian Church in Vienna Saturday, R. E. L. Tyler, of Alexandria, president; presided. The address of welcome was delivered by Rev. J. M. Nourse, and responded to by Mr Tyler. Interesting reports of the societies from Alexandria, Arlington, Ballston, Fort Myer Heights, Falls Church, Herndon, Manassas, Vale and Vienna were made. At the afternoon service addresses were made by Mr. Bartlett, of Alexandria; Miss Hammer, of Manassas; Rev. G. I. Humphreys, of Alexandria, and Mr. J. H. Trimyer. Robt. L. Lowning, the converted actor, made the address of the evening. Rev. J. M. Nourse gave a summary of the meeting, what Christian Endeavor societies stood for.

EVANGELIST ARRESTED

Frederick W. O' Donnell, known as the "Blind Evangelist" wanted in Baltimore on charge of larceny and false pretenses, was arrested yesterday in Seattle. O'Donnell went to Baltimore last April and started an evangelistic campaign. At one of the revival meetings he became acquainted with a Miss Ella Owens, of Baltimore, and after a brief courtship became engaged to her. During this courtsrip he learned that she had a sister living in New York, and he also visited the latter and engaged himself to her.

While engaged to the sisters, it is alleged, O'Donnell inveigled them into advancing him several hundred dollars, with which, he said he was going to purchase a moving-picture machine with which, to illustrate his lectures. A Baltimore detective will go to Seattle to bring O'Donnel back.

Mrs. Logan Stevens was re-elected president of the W. C. T. U. at today's session in Denver.

With the government's case completed Charles W. Morse and Alfred H. Curtis, lawyers began their defence today before Judge Hough in the U. S. Circuit Court in New York.

Early Morning Meeting.

New York, Oct. 27.—W. J. Bryan in addressing a mass meeting of night workers from the steps of the City Hall at 4 o'clock this morning assailed Judge Taft for the latter's alleged opposition to labor. The Bryan meeting was unique.

"There is no badge of shame on the man who earns his bread," said Mr. Bryan. "But the time is coming when there will be on the man who spends his time in idleness, spending the money of others which was bequeathed to him. It is the question of the measure of rewards that causes all of the trouble between employer and employe, and this fact has been taken advantage of by the criminal trusts in recent years. The democratic party believes that the people should rule and is anxious to get back to the early principles of the republic, but the republican party has concentrated all power into a few men who presume to speak for the masses. The democratic platform promises a remedy through conditions which the republicans have created, and I believe I am entitled to the support of all who believe in popular government, and in competition in business."

Mrs. Bryan accompanied her husband to the meetings.

The democratic candidate had an unusually busy day outlined for him when he arose at 10 o'clock. He went directly to the headquarters of the Order of Acorns where he delivered an address to Broadway business men. In his speech there he declared that the declarations of the republican leaders that a panic would surely ensue if he is elected, are absolutely untrue. "I will be elected and that fact will restore confidence," he said.

Still Opposes the Marriage.

Turin, Oct. 27.—Dowager Queen Margherita was today reported as having reopened her fight on the Abruzzi-Elkins wedding. The Duke of the Abruzzi has made several calls on the dowager queen in the last few days in an effort to win her approval, which it was announced she had reluctantly given. While the dowager queen's opposition will not prevent the wedding, it is said that the duke will not sail for America until all the members of the royal family have not only given their consent, but have sent cordial messages to Miss Elkins.

Graft in England.

London, Oct. 27.—Hitherto supposedly graftless England has just begun a series of investigations into municipal conditions which threaten to prove English cities as crooked as any to be found in the world. London is having its turn first. The provincial towns are to follow. Corruption among the petty officials thus far exposed has been on a comparatively small scale, but the indications are that as the inquiry goes higher up it will reveal grafting on the largest and most approved plans.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Oct. 27.—There was an active demand for stocks all around the room after the opening and after a few minutes trading fractional advances were scored in nearly everything traded in. A large part of the list in the general list was of purely professional character.

Steamer Afire.

Charleston, S. C., Oct. 27.—A wireless message received here today from Captain Crockett, of the steamer Philadelphia, reports that he is conveying the steamer Luckenbeck, from New York to San Juan, P. R., with fire in her main hold which, however, is under control. The message was sent from 700 miles east of Charleston and 580 south of Sandy Hook.

Virginia News.

The store of Mr. Hains at Ashburn, Loudoun county, was robbed Saturday night of $200 and a pistol.

A marriage license was issued in Washington yesterday to Robert E. McCarty and Agnes M. Marles, both of Delaplane.

The centennial exercises, commemorating the 100th anniversary of the establishment of the Presbyterian Church in Fredericksburg, started today and will continue through Wednesday.

Announcement was made in Winchester yesterday of the assignment of G. Clarence Miller, former president and principal owner of the Miller Supply Company. His liabilities amount to about $11,000.

S. B. Woodfin, for years managing editor of the Richmond Times-Dispatch, and who for 25 years has been in the local journalistic field, has retired from newspaper work and will enter a less strenuous business as commission merchant.

Everett Brooks, colored, was arrested in Norfolk yesterday charged with having set fire Sunday night to the home of J. Edward Cole, on York street. Brooks was employed by Mr. Cole. The kitchen floor of the Cole home had been oiled. He is believed to be one of Norfolk's firebugs.

Samuel Cohen, a traveling optician, who claimed to be a resident of Maryland, was convicted at Leesburg yesterday of stealing a horse and buggy and sentenced to 10 years in the penitentiary. In April Cohen, who was operating around Bluemont, hired a horse and buggy from J. B. Throckmorton, of that place, and later sold the team.

In the U. S. Court at Lynchburg yesterday morning Judge Clarence J. Campbell, of Amherst, appeared before Judge McDowell to answer a charge of alleged contempt of court for disregarding an order of Referee Blackford with reference to sale of property held by Judge Campbell as trustee and involved in a bankruptcy proceeding. Judge McDowell stated that Judge Campbell's procedure was correct and he was honorably acquitted of the charge.

THE DOCTORS AGREE.

Two Physicians Both Agree on the New Scientific Dandruff Treatment.

Dr. J. M. Powell, of Spokane, Wash., says: "Herpicide has given good satisfaction in my family for dandruff."

Dr. W. G. Alban, of Walla Walla, Wash., says: "I find Herpicide all that is claimed for it as a dandruff cure. I shall prescribe it." Dandruff is a germ disease and you can't cure it unless you kill the dandruff germ; and you can't do that unless you use Newbro's Herpicide, the only preparation in the world that destroys the parasites. A delightful hair dressing; allays itching instantly; makes hair glossy and soft as silk. It is a sure dandruff destroyer.

Sold by Ernest L. Allen & Co., agents. Two sizes 50c and $1.00. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. 111

Alleged Forgeries.

Boston, Mass., Oct. 27.—"Forgeries, garbled, inaccurate," are the terms applied by Mrs. Claudia Hains to the sensational letters recently made public by the attorneys for her husband, Captain Peter Hains, and his brother, T. Jenkins Hains, in their efforts to show improper relations between her and Wm. Annis. Through her attorney, Frederick L. Norton, Mrs. Hains today made the following statement:

"The much-heralded 'Dear Bill' letter is an absolute forgery. The undated letter from Mrs. Hains to her husband referring to scandal about her and another man is a garbled extract from a letter written by Mrs. Hains early in May, shortly before the captains return.

Shot Before His Sweetheart.

New York, Oct. 27.—Shot down before his sweetheart, Leo Reller, aged 23, is dying today in a Brooklyn hospital, and his companion, Joseph Chulla, his father, Louis, and his brother, Philip, are held to await the result of Reller's injuries. Reller was visiting the Chullas home when a dispute arose and he was ordered out. On the sidewalk, says his sweetheart, Miss Rose Oliver, and her two sisters, Reller was held by two of the Chullas, while Joseph held a pistol to his breast and fired. When police arrived the Chulla home was barricaded. When the doors were broken in all three of the accused were found hiding under a bed.

Accidentally Poisoned.

Jackson, Miss., Oct. 27.—Picking the one deadly tablet from a phial of calomel pills, Mrs. Horace Butterworth accidentally poisoned her 3-months-old boy twins here with morphine and today is insane from grief. She is being watched to prevent her suicide. A negro maid found a morphine tablet on the floor of Mrs. Butterworth's bed chamber and thinking it calomel, put it into a bottle containing tablets of that drug. When the children cried the mother selected the one fatal dose.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Latest returns from the parliamentary elections held throughout Canada yesterday indicate that the liberals will have a majority of at least 55 in the next House of Commons.

A dispatch from San Diego, Cal., says four men of the 28th coast artillery and an army mechanic from San Francisco are believed to have perished while on a fishing cruise off the Coronado Islands.

Prince Henry of Prussia, brother of Emperor William and Capt. Mischke made an ascension today at Friedrickshafon in the reconstructed airship of Count Leppelin. The latter acted as pilot of the balloon.

"Will you say anything about your present attitude toward tariff reform," Speaker Cannon was asked in Philadelphia last night. "Tariff revision hell," he replied. "Who ever heard of talking tariff reform in Philadelphia?"

Fred W. Kloeber of Washington, D. C., has been lost in the mountains at Hot Springs, Wash., for more than a week and his father, mother and sister have arrived there awaiting word from searching parties who are scouring the hills.

Forest fires blazing in every state of New England were at last extinguished when rain fell last night and broke the drouth that has prevailed in that part of the country for practically two months. While the rain comes too late to aid vegetation, a little more of it will fill up the springs and relieve the farmers of the fear that they will have no winter water supply for their stock.

Terribly burned in trying to carry a blazing oil stove from her home into the street, Miss Mary Farrell, a seamstress, died today in Roosevelt Hospital, in New York. Miss Farrell's stove exploded as she was preparing a meal in the crowded tenement house. To prevent a probable catastrophe, she grasped the stove and ran for the street. At the bottom of the second flight of stairs, her clothing all ablaze, she fell and before the flames could be extinguished was so badly burned that death was only a matter of hours. Her last question was 'did the house catch fire?"

The Paris Petit Journal's Rome correspondent is authority for the statement that the engagement of the Count of Turin, a brother of the Duke of the Abruzzi, and Princess Patricia, daughter of the Duke of Connaught and niece of King Edward, will be announced within the next month.

Kidnapped and held bound to a tree for $5,000 ransom, Ed. English, a rich lumberman, living at Mount Vernon, Wash., escaped today and appeared at his home shortly after a stranger had handed a note to his wife asking him to send him $5,000, as he was threatened with having his ears cut off if the money was not forthcoming.

The big steamer Mauretania had to wait until today to land her passengers and most of the mail at Queenstown on account of the rough sea that tossed the steamer last night. Loss of life was narrowly averted in an attempt to land the passengers, when the gangway broke and badly damaged a tender. The port officials who had boarded the Mauretania were taken ashore in a whaleboat.

After a five days' stay in Barcelona that did not have a dull moment and included a bomb explosion and an accident to their launch, King Alfonso and the queen left today for Madrid. The bomb explosion occurred last evening and proved to have been the work of some joker, as the king and queen were miles away.

TWO MEN KILLED.

A dispatch from Waycross, Ga., says that after a battle in which two men were killed, L. C. Edenfield, a prominent young man, ran away with Miss Carter, the 15-year-old daughter of the wealthiest man in Ware county, hastened with her to a justice of the peace and made her his wife. Edenfield and Miss Carter had been sweethearts for some months, but her parents objected to the marriage on account of her youth. To get the girl away from Edenfield and prevent an elopement she was sent by her parents to the home of her brother, John W. Carter, at Millwood.

She informed Edenfield of her whereabouts and expressed her willingness to elope, if he would come for her. Accompanied by D. A. Wilson, Edenfield went to the home of the girl's brother and tried to steal her.

He was discovered and a battle occurred, in which Wilson was killed outright and A. J. Little, a friend of Carter, was so badly wounded that he soon died. While the fight was going on Miss Carter rushed from her brother's home to her suitor.

Edenfield placed the girl in a carriage and hurried to the nearest justice, and they were quickly married.

It is alleged that Wilson, who accompanied Edenfield to aid in stealing Miss Carter, was killed by her brother, and Little, who was aiding Carter, was shot by Edenfield. The bridegroom and his brother-in-law will be prosecuted for murder.

Do the right thing if you have Nasal Catarrh. Get Ely's Cream Balm at once. Don't touch the catarrh powders and snuffs, for they contain cocaine. Ely's Cream Balm releases the secretions that inflame the nasal passages and the throat, whereas medicines made with mercury merely dry up to the secretions and leave you no better than you were. In a word, Ely's Cream Balm is a real remedy, not a delusion. All druggists, 50 cents, or mailed by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren street, New York.

IN MEMORIAM.

October 27.—Just one year ago today since EFFIE LEE McCUEN passed away.

Rest thou dear one!
The twilight was not long;
Suffering's day is done—
We come to even song.
From out the heavenly land
We see thy spirit shine,
To give a succoring hand
To heal in thought divine.
We, who so bowed in sorrow wait,
Besides us faithful stand,
Until we meet thee at the gate
Of God's own glorious land.

FINE LARGE PRUNES 10c and 15c per pound at J. C. MILBURN'S.

INJUNCTION AGAINST UNION.

The Supreme Judicial Court of Massachusetts, in making permanent an injunction against several labor unions, yesterday, ruled that labor unions cannot impose fines on their members in order to force them to go out on strike.

The decision was rendered on a petition brought by L. D. Willcutt, Sons & Co., of Boston, asking for an injunction against the bricklayers' and stonemasons' benevolent unions, restraining them from imposing a fine of $100 each on two members of the union who had refused to go out on strike.

In the spring of 1906 the unions issued a new set of rules for members employed by contractors, and sent the new rules to a large number of firms in Boston. The Willcutt firm, fearing, as it claimed, that loss of money would follow its failure to complete certain work under these rules, closed up part of its work and discharged a number of men. The unions then declared a strike on other work in which the company was engaged. Later two labor leaders visited the place and found two union men still working. The labor leaders ordered them to cease, under penalty of being fined $100 each.

The Willcut firm obtained a temporary injunction against the unions to prevent the fines being imposed, and the decree yesterday makes that injunction permanent.

A COMPLAINT.

It is generally conceded that the square of roadway on Alfred street, between Queen and Princess, is the worst of any in the town, but we had a fairly good sidewalk on one side of this street, but now both are bad, and I would like to ask whose duty it is to see why carts and wagons haul across a good pavement and break it up in order to pile up rock &c., on a vacant lot.

ARRESTED FOR ASSAULT.

Howard H. McCravy was arrested last night by Officers Besch and Nicholson, charged with assaulting Ashby Goram. McCravy has been in Alexandria during the past few weeks, during which time he has been introducing himself to people and alleging that he is a member of a Masonic lodge in one of the southern states. He also says he was blown up in the battleship Missouri and receives a pension, and that he has made a trip to Jerusalem and inspected the site upon which the temple of Solomon once stood and which is now occupied by the Mosque of Omar. McCravy met a resident of this city last Sunday, and told him he was anxious to get to Washington in order to have his pension increased. The Alexandrian, suspecting that he wanted money and not transportation, purchased a ticket for him. McCravy then pretended he could not go to Washington until Monday. Members of the craft will take due notice and act accordingly if they are accosted by this individual.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Susan Tate and Martha Kyer, both colored, charged with fighting, were fined $5 each.

Allen Carter, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, was dismissed.

Wm. Hall, colored, charged with drunkenness and indecent conduct, was fined $5.

Amos Robinson and Lorenzo Chase, both colored, charged with fighting, were fined $5 each.

Wm. Wilkerson, colored, charged with interfering with an officer in the discharge of his duty, was dismissed.

Mamie Sanders, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, was dismissed.

Owen J. Nugent, charged with conducting business on Sunday, was fined $2.

Howard H. McCrasky, charged with assaulting Ashby Goram, was fined $5.

TO ELECT BISHOP

Bishop Robert A. Gibson, of the Episcopal Diocese of Virginia, will issue this week a call for a special meeting of the Episcopal Council of Virginia to meet in St. Paul's Church, Alexandria, on December 16th, for the purpose of electing a bishop-coadjutor for this diocese. At the last meeting of the council, held in Fredericksburg, the advisability of electing a bishop-coadjutor for the growing work of the diocese was taken looking to that end, which has since been aproved by the standing committee of bishop of the general church. The honor will probably fall to some rector in active service in the State. He will be a regularly consecrated bishop of the general church, with seat and vote in the House of Bishops, and the right of succession to the bishopric of Virginia on the death or retirement of Bishop Gibson.

TAKEN TO PHILADELPHIA.

Chief Goods yesterday evening received a telegram from T. O'Leary, assistant superintendent of police in Philadelphia, indicating that Thomas J. Slowey, the young man who proclaimed himself an embezzler when he was taken to the police station Saturday night for safekeeping, is wanted by the Philadelphia force. The telegram directed the Alexandria police to hold Slowey, and asked if he would return without extradition papers. When the purport of the message was explained to Slowey, he said that he would be glad to go back to Philadelphia. Detective Andrew J. Emamuel, of the latter city, came here today and conducted Slowy to Philadelphia where it is said he embezzled about $1,000.

MASONIC.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Masons will meet at the Masonic Temple at Richmond tonight and will be in session for two days. The grand working committee held a meeting in the Temple yesterday. The Grand Commandery will meet in the Masonic Temple at 10 o'clock Thursday morning, and will be in session for one day only. The degree of Knight Templar will be conferred under the auspices of the Grand Commandery, by Winchester Commandery, No 12, at 8 o'clock Thursday night. Messrs. J. E. Alexander, Samuel P. Fisher, W. H. Charles, M. L. Dinwiddie, T. A. Fisher and J. H. Fisher left this morning for Richmond. They will represent Old Dominion Commandery and Mount Vernon Chapter, Royal Arch Masons, of this city, at the meeting of the grand bodies.

THE NEGRO AND POLITICS.

Prof. W. C. Payne, colored, of this city, delivered an address in the Second Baptist Church, in Springfield, Ohio, one night last week. The subject of the address was "The Condition of the Negro in the South, or How Our Northern Brother Can Help Us." The speaker appealed to his hearers to vote for Bryan and said that the negroes should know that the white republicans of the south took the initiative in bringing about negro disfranchisement.

RIVER NOTES.

There was another high tide in the river this morning, the water at some places being awash with the wharves.

The steamer Dennis Simmons, from Williamston, N. C., with lumber for H. K. Field & Co., has arrived.

The schooner Hattie and Frances is being loaded with lumber for Kinsale by Smoot & Co.

OYSTER ROAST.

THE WEATHER.

Most people prefer to forget the character of the weather from year to year or even from month to month, but certain it is the weather that has prevailed for the past week has been remarkably warm and delightful for Alexandria. Today the mercury got up to which point it reached several days recently, and people are wearing light clothing and walking on the shady side of the streets. At night residents sit out on their front door steps or porches enjoying the delightful temperature as they do in the good old summer time. Mosquitoes have again made their appearance and the residents who have removed the screens from the doors and windows now realize their mistake and are resorting to lavender and citronella to keep off these pestiferous insects. Truly this is remarkable weather.

FUNERALS.

The funeral of the late William Hartbower, who died Saturday night, took place yesterday from the family home in Fairfax county, below Hunting creek. The services were conducted by Rev. Father Cutler.

The remains of Mrs. Virginia Hunter, widow of John Hunter, a former resident of this city, who died in Roanoke, Sunday last, arrived here last night. Her funeral took place this afternoon from the residence of Mr. F. G. Grimes, 223 south Lee street. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Morton and the pallbearers were Messrs. William and Harry Bailey, of Washington, John Watkins, H. F. Grimes, Warren Grimes, and F. G. Grimes, grandsons of the deceased.

MEETING TONIGHT.

As previously stated in the Gazette, Judge R. T. W. Duke, jr., of Charlottesville, and Delegate James R. Caton, of this city, will address the voters of Alexandria in the Opera House tonight. The meeting will be held under the auspices of the Bryan, Kern, and Carlin Club.

The gallery will be reserved for ladies. A drum corps is expected to furnish music for the occasion.

The members of the City Council, all the city officials and members of the Bryan, Kern and Carlin Club are invited to occupy seats on the stage.

The campaign will close in Alexandria next Monday night, with speeches by Senator Thomas S. Martin and Representative C. C. Carlin.

FOOTBALL.

The football eleven of the Episcopal High School defeated the Fredericksburg College eleven yesterday afternoon on the former's grounds; score 10 to 0. On Colross Wednesday evening at 4:30 p. m. the champion A. A. C. football team of this city will play the Old Dominions another game having once defeated the all stars by the score of 10 to 0. The Old Dominions have been working hard and have secured the service of two of the A. A. C. old players but the A. A. C's have replaced them with fast men of reputation. A large crowd is expected to attend as great rivalry exists between these teams.

LAND SALES.

The old Lebanon property, at Lorton Valley, Fairfax county, containing 360 acres near Gunston, which was bought by Mr. W. A. J. Dunn, of Iowa, some time ago, has been sold to a Mr. Lapham, of Delaware, for $9,000.

Thomas F. Dodd has sold his farm of eighty acres, known as Valley View and located near Franconia, Fairfax county. The purchaser, a Washington business man, paid $5,000 for the property and intends to make it his summer home.

T. W. Burne has sold his estate near Dunn Loring, Fairfax county, to John J. Bursch, of Georgetown, for $7,000.

AN OLD LANDMARK.

The frame house on the east side of Royal street, between King and Prince, which until recently belonged to the estate of the late Samuel T. Jenkins, will be removed from its present site as soon as a purchaser is found. Ineffectual attempts were made during the past week or two to elevate the building. This house is one of Alexandrian's old landmarks. Seventy-five years ago it was used as a bakery, and up to the time of the civil war the late Samuel O. Bagot conducted the same business there. Of late years it had been used as a dwelling.

ALEXANDRIA LIGHT INFANTRY

A number of ladies and gentlemen were present at the regular weekly drill of the A. L. I., held last night in the Amory when the ceremony of guard mount was used as a part of the evening's work, and in both that and the regular drill work the company made a fine showing. Next Monday night, weather premitting, the company expects to drill on King street, and will give an exhibition of advance guard and extended order work, as well as the regular close order drill.

INSANE CONVICT.

L. Trumbull, one of the colored convicts from the penitentiary, who had been working on the roads in the vicinity of The Plains, Fauquier county, became insane a few days ago, and was brought to this city today by a guard and placed in the station house. He will be returned to Richmond on one of the evening trains. The man has but one answer to all questions propounded—"listen." He seems to be hopelessly deranged.

CIRCUIT COURT FOR COUNTY.

[Judge J. B. T. Thornton, presiding.]

Rixey vs. Green; debt; jury and verdict for plaintiff for $20.

The cases of Pettit and McEnerney, indicted for selling liquor without licenses, were continued till the next term of court.

THE CLERK'S OFFICE.

The clerk of the Corporation Court and his assistants were busily engaged today in moving their office from the second story of the Corporation Court house building to the first floor, where the new office has been arranged and will soon be occupied. The new office will be provided with modern conveniences and will be well lighted.

DEATH OF MRS. DAVIES.

Mrs. Viola Davies, wife of Mr. Harry Davies, died at her home, on Payne street, between Prince and Duke, last night. The deceased was a daughter of Mr. Charles Humphries.

Ladies! "Why not be comfortable." Buy The Red Cross Shoe. It bends with the foot. J. A. Marshall & Bro., 422 King street.

FRATERNAL VISIT.

Alexandria Council, No. 33 Jr. O. U. A. will tonight pay a visit to Vienna Council, at Vienna. A special car has been chartered for the round trip and about forty members will go. The degree team will carry their paraphernalia and confer the work upon a large class of candidates. At the close of the regular meeting of the council the degree of Oriental will be conferred by a team from the court in this city. The visitation will close with a banquet at which time prominent members of the order will speak. The special car will leave the corner of Royal and Prince streets at 7 o'clock p. m. and stop at every corner to take on members of the order.

ILL ON A TRAIN.

A colored woman boarded a north bound electric train at Arlington Junction last night and before the train reached Washington she told the conductor, she was ill from eating pickels. Upon arriving at the station the conductor it is said, supposed the woman was dead, but upon examination it was found that she was alive but in a critical condition. An ambulance was summoned and the woman was hurried to the Emergency Hospital, where she was resuscitated.

CHURCH NOTES.

"The Old Time Religion" was the subject of the sermon address delivered by Mr. Robt. L. Downing last night to a congregation that again filled the Methodist Protestant Church. In strong, pithy, practical sentences the evangelist gave his message, leaving no doubt in the minds of his hearers about the necessity of "Old Time Religion." Tonight Mr. Downing will speak on "Our Duty to God and Man." Rev. C. D. Bulla and Rev. J. W. Kirk, of Baltimore, were present and took part in the service.

For Chronic Diarrhoea.

"While in the army in 1863 I was taken with chronic diarrhoea," says George M. Felton of South Gibson, Pa. "I have since tried many remedies but without any permanent relief, until Mr. A. W. Miles, of this place, persuaded me to try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, one bottle of which stopped it at once." For sale by W. F. Creighton & Company and Richard Gibson.

PERSONAL.

Mr. Wm. J. Hall last night very delightfully entertained a number of his friends at his home on Prince street at a cabinet phonograph recital. Mr. Hall's cabinet is one of the finest ever made and his records are of the best; his friends spent a most delightful evening. Mr. Hall has determined to make Washington his home and will remove to that city in a few days much to the regret of his many friends in Alexandria.

Mr. C. W. Howell, who recently underwent an operation in the Eye and Ear Hospital in Washington, has returned to his home in this city, in an advanced stage of convalescence.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

New flagstone crossings are being constructed at Prince and Columbus streets.

A meeting of Alexandria Lodge of Elks was held last night. The business transacted was of a routine nature.

The Masonic fair committee has secured room No. 2 in the Alexandria Bank building, where all business in connection with the proposed fair will be conducted.

The City Council meets tonight.

The Young Men's Sodality Lyceum will give an oyster roast at their hall next Monday night.

James W. Jackson Council, No. 55, Junior Order of United American Mechanics, will give its autumnal ball at Odd Fellow's Hall, north Columbus street, tonight.

The two brick houses on the south side of Wolfe street, between Fairfax and Royal, are being demolished. Mr. George Chadwick will erect two modern brick residences on their site.

The ladies' aid society of the First Baptist Church will give an oyster supper at Confederate Veterans' Hall this evening from 5.30 to 11 o'clock. There will be a musical and literary entertainment beginning at 8 o'clock.

A row took place between several colored men on Prince street, between Patrick and Henry, early last night. One of the colored men drew a pistol and soon scattered the other darkeys.

Card from Mr. Gregg.

To the voters of the Eighth Congressional District of Virginia—Having been nominated as the candidate of the republican party for Representative in Congress for the Eighth Congressional District of Virginia, I hereby announce my candidacy to the voters of the district, and earnestly solicit the votes of all who believe that the welfare of the country demands the election of W. H. Taft for President and the election of a Congress in sympathy with his policies. Respectfully,

MOTION PICTURES.

The motion picture houses were again largely attended last night and the patrons expressed themselves as more than pleased with the entertainment. When one stops to think that each picture house can be visited and about two hours spent in profitable and amusing entertainment for less money than the cost of a round trip ticket to Washington there is no wonder that these places of amusement are well patronized. Come out tonight and see a good show—by visiting the Alexandria Amusement, the Elite, or the Opera House motion picture houses.

THE ARMORY SUIT.

The new Alexandria Light Infantry Company, through it scaptain, F. L. Slaymaker, filed an amended bill today against P. F. Murphy and Windsor W. Demaine. The amended bill sets out the title to and history of the Armory from the beginning. It avers that after the Spanish war, a company was formed with J. E. King as captain; that this new company took possession of the armory, without any objections from the remaining active members of the old Alexandria Light Infantry, and to make its right to the Armory legal; those members of the old Alexandria Light Infantry who had not enlisted in the United States service, executed a deed to the new company, and that this deed expressly provided that should the new company be disbanded, the City Council should hold the title to the Armory for any new company that might be formed in the city; that upon the disbandment of Capt. Murphy's company, it had no right or claim to the Armory, and Capt Slaymaker's company was entitled thereto by virtue of said deed. The bill further alleges that upon the disbandment of their company Capt. Murphy and Lieut. Demaine had no interest in the Armory, and were mere trespassers, without shadow of claim to prevent the new company from having possession of the Armory and using it for the purposes for which the citizens had built it.

PROFESSOR BLACKFORD.

One of the Washington papers of Sunday last contained the following:

President Roosevelt selected the Episcopal High School of Alexandria as the institution of learning for his son Kermit, after a careful study of the career and character of Principal L. M. Blackford.

Entering the Confederate army at the age of sixteen, Mr. Blackford was assigned to Stonewall Jackson's brigade. At the battle of Cedar Mountain, while in command of a field gun, he deported himself in such a manner as to win praise and admiration from the enemy as well as from the men who wore the gray. He was detailed to hold off the enemy while his company retreated. The union forces charged upon his single gun, but unflinchingly he stood at his post of duty and refused to move. Finally, when the union forces discovered that he was the only Confederate on the hill, the charge was abandoned, and the lad, wearing white gloves and neatly pressed suit, walked off the field as though on dress parade

The following poem relates to the incident.

A SOUTHERN SOLDIER BOY.

Do you know him? Have you seen him?
Brave he is and true alway.
Listen while I tell the story of the boy who wore the gray.
Lo! a vision comes before me of a battlefield bygone,
And a young Confederate soldier standing at his gun—alone.

His comrades are retreating 'mid the bursting shot and shell;
He has checked the foe's advances, has obeyed old Stonewall well.
He must guard the path to freedom, for his comrades hold the field,
Till in safety they have passed him, tho' alone, he must not yield.

'Mid the carnage all around him, calm, undaunted yet he stands;
E'en the foe are filled with wonder—as he waits his chief's command.
They have safely passed beyond him, spiked his gun, he lifts his hat,
Gravely bows adieu to foeman, turns to go, but—what is that?

Loud and long the cheers resounded, not a gun is turned his way,
For the noble, boyish figure, free the path before him lay!
Do you wonder that such courage e'en from foeman wins applause?
He was fighting for his, our Southland, for a great and noble cause.

Such examples lie before you; can you fail to be inspired
By the courteous, brave man's action to brave deeds like his be fired?
Ah! you boys—you've got to live it, fight as Blackford did that day;
Firmly stand for right and country; do as Blackford does alway.

ANNIE CHEW DORSEY COQUILLET.

Do not let anyone tell you that something else is just as good as DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills because there isn't anything just as good. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

An Equinox.

Tommy—Pa, what is an equinox? Pa—Why—er—it is—ahem! For goodness sake, Tommy, don't you know anything about mythology at all? An equinox was a fabled animal, half horse, half cow. Its name is derived from the words 'equine' and 'ox.' It does seem as if these public schools don't teach children anything nowadays!"

Naturalized.

An Italian went to the civil service commissioners' rooms to be examined for a laborer's position. He answered most of the questions correctly. Finally they asked him if he had ever been naturalized. He seemed a bit puzzled, but at last his face lighted up. "Ah, I know whata you mean. Scratcha de arm. Yes, lasta week."

Then He Stole.

Prudent Swain—If I were to steal a kiss, would it scare you so that you would scream? Timid Maiden—I couldn't. Fright always makes me dumb.

I have never known a man of real ability to be ungrateful.—Goethe.

Notice to State Taxpayers.

I am now prepared to receive the State taxes for the year 1908. The attention of taxpayers is respectfully called to the importance of paying the same prior to December 1 1908, as on that date a penalty of five per cent. will be added to all unpaid bills, and their collection enforced as required by law.

THOMAS W. ROBINSON,
